SIX QUESTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

Hello There...

Taking time out of the hamster wheel frenzy of doing, to pause and reflect is so important.

Effective change and growth comes from awareness of what's working for us and what is not.

If we wish for a better tomorrow it is best built on the foundations of the lessons of today.

I hope you can take a little time to just be this holiday season, and reflect on a good year well-lived and to build some anticipation for the brand shiny new one that is about to open up!

Here are SIX questions to help you do just that. It won't take you long, but the insight could shape your whole year to come.

SIX QUESTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

1. FAREWELL

What would you like to farewell and leave behind this year? What have you outgrown? Perhaps it's a relationship or a social situation or an obligation. Maybe you feel ready for a new career or a new location. What would you like to farewell and gently close the door on?

2. GRATITUDE

What are you most grateful for this past year? What worked out well for you, better perhaps than you anticipated? Who came into your life or stepped up in your life in a way that enhanced it? To what and to whom do you feel appreciative for their contribution to your life this year? Have you told them?

SIX QUESTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

3. ACHIEVEMENT

What are your proudest achievements this year? Where did you give the most of yourself? When did you push yourself out of your comfort zone? Where and how did you grow? What are your finest accomplishments of the year?

4. LEARNING

What have you learned this year? About yourself? About others or the world? What do you want to repeat? Do more of? Less of? What worked? What didn't? Why? What lessons do you wish to take from this past year?

SIX QUESTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

5. BOUNDARIES AND BALANCE

Where did you give the most of yourself this year? Are you happy with where you put the share of your time, energy and attention? Are there areas where you wish you had invested more? Where do you wish you had given less? Where do you wish you had given more support? Where do you, on reflection, think you could have got more support? How could you balance your time or energy distribution differently in the New Year?

6. HIGHLIGHTS

What were the best feeling moments this year? What are the highlights you will remember for life? Who and what made them special and why? What three words sum up this year for you personally?

6 QUESTIONS AT CHRISTMAS

There will be some revealing themes running through your answers. Note what you have learned below, and any intentions or decisions for what you desire next year.

The themes I have observed in my answers are....

Let these insights sit for a while, play with them in your mind and follow the most intriguing line of thought...allow yourself permission to want for yourself what you REALLY want.
